Dear valued customer, In support of the GO Green campaign, please be informed that the Bank will start sending your account statements via electronic channels starting from July 2022. Customers are encouraged to subscribe for the e-Statement service via the Internet Banking platform, or you may also register a valid email address/update your latest email address and information at the nearest branch in order to receive your account statements via email. Let's switch to e-Statements to enjoy greater convenience.
